

MAKE FUR HISTORY

RECOMMENDATIONS

The farming of animals for their fur should be prohibited in accordance with Council Directive 98/58/EC and the Council of Europe Recommendation Concerning Fur Animals.

There are significant ethical concerns and serious animal welfare problems associated with fur farming. Many countries in Europe have already prohibited fur farming (the United Kingdom, Austria, Croatia, Slovenia, the Republic of Macedonia) and/or are presently phasing-out fur farming (the Netherlands, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Serbia, Czech Republic, Norway). Further action is needed and we hope to be able to count on your support!

WE URGE MEPS TO:

- Support bans in the EU Member States where fur production is still permitted
- Call for the enforcement of Council Directive 98/58/EC thereby taking into account the Council of Europe Recommendation Concerning Fur Animals
- Take the pledge! Sign the Fur Free Pledge to show your support to #MakeFurHistory

WE CALL ON MEMBER STATES TO:

- Fully implement the Council Directive 98/58/EC and take into consideration the Council of Europe Recommendation Concerning Fur Animals

WE CALL ON THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION TO:

- Ensure the proper implementation and enforcement of Council Directive 98/58/EC thereby taking into account the Council of Europe Recommendation Concerning Fur Animals in the Member States

“No animal shall be kept for its fur if: a. the conditions of this Recommendation cannot be met, or if b. The animal belongs to a species whose members, despite these conditions being met, cannot adapt to captivity without welfare problems.”

Council of Europe Recommendation Concerning Fur Animals

“No animal shall be kept for farming purposes unless it can reasonably be expected, on the basis of its genotype or phenotype, that it can be kept without detrimental effect on its health or welfare.”
